The Argument

It goes on assumption that since the beginning of time man had conspired against women instead of simple decaying weakness in all nations.

How long since there had been anything like general manhood suffrage?

The argument on both sides apel- ead that of the hereafter minister aging against W.S. as hitched & running around with a Bible as at London conference p 42. v.1. Hist of W.S.

But turn to the suffragist & it is as rad uninformed - intolerant - prejudiced on both sides

Condorcet - Lettres d'un bourgeois of New Heaven à un citoyen de Virginie -
argues: -
We are making a constitution founded in natural right - i.e., right derived from nature - by virtue of our being a reasoning creature - cannot be defined without injustice.
Right of voting expressing judgment on the common interest either directly or through representatives freely elected - one of these in the case of Indian & unmarried women.

As to others it may be said that - the exercise of the right of a citizen supposes that a being can act freely - But then I will answer that - the civil laws which make so great an inequality between men & women that - that we can suppose their depend of free will are an additional injustice.

I see only one necessary & just inequality -

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

of women & they have everywhere exacted oppressive laws for her - or at least established great inequalities before the law.
The Enquiste admit that only those who are taxes are legislative in which one has voted - It follows that a woman has a right to refuse to pay her taxes.
I see no sound answer to this reasoning - at least the deciding voice should in all cases belong to one sex -

It seems more natural to share the prerogative - & to give it - ~~[illegible]~~ to the one ~~[illegible]~~ of the two where it ~~[illegible]~~ more lightly that - the will will be ~~[illegible]~~ conform to reason.
The idea of more equality between the sexes is not new Empire Juliane

right of divorce -
justice demanded

Digital Image, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.

I see only one necessary
& just inequality
in an association of persons :- that while sparing from the need of giving a deciding voice in the few cases where the separate will ~~to~~ can not be allowed to act or where the necessity of acting does not allow the union of the two wills -
It is ~~no~~ ~~than~~ difficult to suppose that

But need it not be ridiculous -
Should one forbid ~~[illegible]~~ citizens to be ridiculous - either they choose wisely & so not need rules or badly & rules will not ~~[illegible]~~ confine them -
This change supposes first - a change in civil laws -
+ change
- in education of women - in order that - the objections shall have passed before the new order is established

justice demands that women have right to vote -
are they eligible for public office.
Exclusion rules (2)
injustice - one to electors defined of choice other to those excluded - It seems to me that there should be no legal exclusion except in cases where reason proves its wisdom certain cases of incompatibility exclude - women not in this case

need only men who had inventive genius - there would be many vacant places even even in the academies.
If we compare the women who have received a careful & consecutive education with that of those men who have received the same & see how few men of genius have resulted we will see that this argument is not proved - Consider the restraints of custom, [illegible]

Woman not fit for war - part of life must be free from pleasures which demand ~~daily~~ hard work - - these things aside at least we can say that - women of first order are equal to men of second - & superior to men of third etc. - Do everything but invent - Voltaire agree to this But if we recog-said only men who had invented guns - there would be many vacant places ~~even~~ even when war first published in 1787 - Adams then in London now in Paris
