My dear Miss Tarbell,

I have just read your article in Collier's, and I drop into the first available writing place to tell you how you have pleased me. Feebly and inadequately I have tried to say a few words for Mr. Wilson, every one written con amore.

Then I read your fine inspiring article, and at once realize how futile my 1000 words must seem.

But thank you, thank you, thank you! My eldest boy shall now understand what I have wished him to know.

Very sincerely,
Ed. Boddington
