Dear Prof. Benjamin.

My copy of March A.L. Quarterly reached me only last week. I am so pleased with what you have done. It places the emphasis where I have always insisted it should go. It makes the L. Room a corner for undergraduates. They will find up there is anything there for them and dig it out. Let us have faith.

If I am ever allowed a secretary I am able to Walk (that is what I am hoarding strength coupons for) you could begin to receive letters and-etc-etc.

With regrets that I must defer my part in the undertaking and appreciation of your understanding of what I hope from the Lincoln Room

I am faithfully
