New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I have read with much interest your two articles which have appeared on women in industry in INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT. I am assuming that these articles are to compose the book for which we have a contract with you and which has been tentatively entitled on that contract as THE AMERICAN WOMAN. I shall be glad to know if that is also your understanding and if we may look forward to having the complete Ms. for spring or fall publication. If you have not thought of these articles in connection with that contract is there any reason why they would not apply against that?

Yours very truly,
