YALE UNIVERSITY
NEW HAVEN CONNECTICUT

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

April 17, 1931

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Within a few days you will receive a copy of the first official bulletin of the Institute of Human Relations, marked for your personal attention. This bulletin, I am sure, will give you an excellent picture of the progress that has been made and the present activities of the Institute. I invite your perusal of this document and shall welcome any comments or suggestions you may wish to make.

You will also receive shortly an invitation to the exercises in connection with the dedication of the Institute of Human Relations in New Haven on Saturday, May 9th. I hope that you will be able to attend, for it is our wish that members of the National Advisory Committee of The Human Welfare Group should see at first hand something of our activities. We believe that both in the bulletin and in your visit here you will find gratifying evidence of progress in particular fields and in the coordination of activities bearing upon human welfare.

With assurances that we appreciate, as always, your interest in this work, believe me

Very truly yours,

Digital Image, 2011, The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.