My dear Miss Tarbell—

Inclosed I am sending you two of Eleanor Webley's "Divine Love Incarnate" pictures - You who have always loved beauty will appreciate Eleanor's inspiration - Since Eleanor went "Home" shortly followed by the dear little one hundred year old Mother I have been helping her sister Miss F. Gertrude Clarke, carry on the great work - When I was about sixteen I had the great pleasure of meeting you, one afternoon - I was with Miss Alice Lawrence (Judge Lawrence's daughter) you showed me a bust of Lincoln - You had just finished and down through the years I have carried the glowing expression of your eyes — And your vibrant enthusiasm has always been a source of inspiration to me - You have probably received thousands of letters of appreciation for your words - but none more sincere than this -

May God bless You abundantly -
Most Sincerely Yours
