January 6, 1923

Mr. George W. Berry,
School for the Deaf,
Fulton, Mo.

My dear Mr. Berry:

Some years ago I had a little correspondence with you concerning Nancy Hanks, the mother of Abraham Lincoln. In your note to me you said you had some facts and statistics which would be invaluable. As I was not working on Lincoln at that time, your note was turned over to Mrs. Caroline Hanks Hitchcock, then at work on the Hanks genealogy.

I should be very glad indeed if now it were possible for you to let me see the material of which you wrote me in 1900. Will you kindly let me hear from you?

Very truly yours,

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.