October 9, 1920

Mr. Henry Wallace Phillips,
1139 Madison Avenue,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Phillips:

I only this morning was able to get hold of the address of the man that I wanted to consult about the moving picture possibilities in your stories. I find he is in London, connected with one of the best companies, The Famous Players-Lasky Corporation. It seemed to me it would be better to write him and get his advice before doing anything else. I hope that you think this is right, slow as it is.

Very sincerely yours,

Cellar Library