Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
R.F.D. 3,
Bethel, Conn.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

When I saw you at the club the other day I wanted to tell you again how happy everybody is about your Good-Housekeeping article. You have done a magnificent thing for us and I want you to know how deeply we all appreciate it.

I have gotten a grist of pictures from the colleges for Mr. Bigelow, and also have made repeated efforts to get figures from the men's colleges on the gifts made to them during this last academic year. I have that information from the women's colleges and from three of the seven men's colleges which you instanced in your article. I am turning this over to Mr. Bigelow and will wire them in his name for the missing information, if he wants me to do so.

On the 3rd of August I am sailing for England, but will be back the 15th of September.

Most sincerely yours,

Maude White Stewart
