New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

May I impose on your good nature again?

The Directors of the Cranbrook School in Detroit are considering me for the Headmastership of that school. I received a letter this morning from Professor Morris Tilley, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, requesting a letter from you. He is Professor of English at Ann Arbor and naturally knows your books and especially the one about Mr. Young.

I would appreciate it very much if you will send a letter to him concerning your impression of the Van Hornesville School.

Very truly yours,

Maurice S Hammond
