Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
19 West 9th Street,
New York City.

Dear Madam:

On October 7 President Low wrote to you, inviting you to become a member of the Advisory Council of the Industrial Economics Department of The National Civic Federation. This department will make an investigation into the industrial and social progress of the last three decades, together with an inquiry into the economic proposals of the various forms of Socialism. President Low's letter contained a general outline of the proposed movement, a duplicate copy of which is herewith enclosed.

We have not heard from you in reference to this matter and, as we are publishing a list of acceptances in the forthcoming number of "The National Civic Federation Review", I write to ask if we may have the pleasure of including your name.

The Advisory Council will be called to meet at the Annual Meeting of the Federation in this city, December 11 and 12, at which time a reported plan for making this inquiry will be presented by the Committee on Plan and Scope.

Very truly yours,

D. L. Cease

Secretary.
