REGISTRATION FOR FIRST TERM NUMBERS SIX HUNDRED ONE

Number of Upper Classmen Unprecedented—Freshmen Total Only 180

Registration last week found approximately six hundred and one students either resuming or beginning their course of study in Allegheny College. Of that number one hundred and eighty students are enrolled in the freshman class. As it is desired to limit the number of students at Allegheny to about five hundred, it was necessary to confine the number of freshmen to an uncommonly small figure because of the unprecedented number of upper classmen.

James Merton Beebe, Meadville.
Merwin Russell Blandon, Union City.
Carroll Glenn Cole, Wellsville, N. Y.
Arlmoe Fowles Collins, Erie.

MANY FACULTY MEMBERS ABSENT DURING SUMMER

PROFESSOR MEZZOTERO PAYS VISIT TO RELATIVES IN ITALY—TOURS FRANCE

With the opening of the new school semester many of the members of the faculty have disclosed the manner in which they have spent their summer vacations. Many passed their summers in much needed rest, while others were engaged in various types of work.

Professor Richard F. Mezzotero has just returned from a pleasure trip to Italy where he visited with his relatives during the summer. Professor Mezzotero sailed from New York City on June 28, aboard the steamer Colombo, landing in Naples, Italy. On board the ship he conducted a class in foreign languages for the benefit of those going to visit foreign lands.

After spending four weeks with his relatives in southern Italy, he traveled into northern Italy where he visited the many important and interesting cities in that section of the country. Journeying across France, Professor Mezzotero continued to South Hampton, England, where he boarded the S. S. George Washington for New York City.

During his travels abroad Professor Mezzotero collected many interesting souvenirs and photographs.

Miss Alice Spaulding passed the summer in southern California where she visited with her relatives.

Dr. Irwin R. Beiler has been engaged the greater part of the summer in the preparation of "International Uniform Lessons" for "The Senior Quarterly." This magazine is used by the young and adult classes in the Methodist and Congregational churches and has the largest circulation of all the religious publications. The first of his works is appearing in the October, November and December issue.

Dr. Frederick G. Henke made an automobile trip to the state of Iowa where he visited with relatives.

Dr. C. A. Darling took a two weeks' cruise on the Great Lakes. He also acted as a delegate to the Kiwanis International Convention held at Montreal and attended the Phi Gamma Delta Convention at Colorado Springs.

Dr. J. R. Schultz supervised a Redpath Chautauqua Circuit covering the State of New York and the New England States.

ANNUAL Y RECEPTION HELD THURSDAY NIGHT

MORE THAN FOUR HUNDRED STUDENTS ENJOY SOCIAL EVENING

Over four hundred Alleghenians met at the first all-college function of the year, the combined Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. reception, which was held last Thursday evening, September 23, in the parlors and dining room of Cochran Hall.

Shortly after eight o'clock the students began to gather and within a half hour the rooms were crowded. A spirit of geniality and informality which is characteristic of Y. M.-Y. W. receptions was felt throughout the evening, and everyone present mingled freely in good-fellowship.

Autograph booklets were given to the guests as they entered, and there was much spirited competition to determine who could get the most signatures.

The program of the evening consisted of speeches by Donald Leeper, acting-president of the Y. M. C. A., and Cecelia Johnson, president of the Y. W. C. A. Several vocal selections by Alice Stephens, and songs by a men's quartette consisting of Cyril Hartman, John Hartman, Philip Corbin and James Meadowcroft added much to the pleasantness of the function.

Credit for the success of the reception may be given to Miss Florence Clark, Norman Laffer and James Meadowcroft, who were chairmen of the committees in charge of the arrangements for the event.

NEW CHAPEL COMMISSION ANNOUNCES COMMITTEES

YEAR'S PROGRAM DISCUSSED—WOMEN'S JUNIOR MEMBER YET TO BE CHOSEN

A meeting of the Chapel Commission was held on Thursday afternoon, September 23, to draw up plans for the formation of a chapel program for the next two months. The chapel services for the ensuing year were discussed in contrast to the program carried out last spring.

In addition to President Beebe, Dr. W. A. Elliott and Dr. I. R. Beiler, the following students were elected to serve on the Commission for the year by the Men's and Women's Senates: Cyril B. Hartman and Paul G. Wells, men's senior members, Robert Kirkpatrick, men's junior member, and Mildred Lose and Edith Shannon, women's senior members. The women's junior member will be elected at a later date. The sub-committees of the Commission are: religious, Doctors Elliott and Beiler; music, Mr. Hartman and Miss Lose; activities, Messrs. Wells and Kirkpatrick and Miss Shannon.

At a meeting on Monday the program for two months was arranged in detail. The Commissions plans call for a more varied program than was arranged for last year.

Myrtle Elder, '18, was married to Griffith Asplundh on July 15, at Bryn Athyn, Pa.

STUDENT MANUAL ISSUED TO INCOMING FRESHMEN

BOOK BY CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS CONTAINS UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION

Bearing evidences of much painstaking work the thirty-second edition of the Student Manual, the annually published handbook of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., was forwarded to all incoming Freshmen shortly before the opening of the fall term. The book was very well edited and is a credit to its Editor, Alan S. Christner, and its Manager, Louis H. Dunlop.

The volume is bound much like last year's edition, in rich blue leather, which bears a golden block A on the front cover. The contents are similar to those of former years, although many improvements have been made, changes in the order of contents brought about, and the whole brought thoroughly up to date. The introductory pages include a foreword by President James A. Beebe, greetings to the new freshmen from President Beebe, Donald W. Leeper, President of the Y. M. C. A., Cecelia Johnson President of the Y. W. C. A., and finally a list of the cabinet officials for the ensuing year.

The section entitled "The College," contains a list of the songs, cheers, registration, the names of the faculty members, the College regulations, and a resume of the College buildings. There is also the customary list of "Don'ts" for freshmen and the regulations pertaining to the Library. The collegiate athletic records, together with a list of the schedules for this year's contests, follows. The book is concluded with a list of the names of all freshmen.

Following the precedent set last year the Manual was self-supporting, with proceeds from advertisements and the sale of a few copies paying for the cost of publication.

FRESHMAN WEEK FILLS GREAT NEED OF COLLEGE

ADDRESSES, EXAMINATIONS AND SOCIAL EVENTS FILL WEEK'S PROGRAM

Beginning Thursday, September 16, and extending until Monday, September 20, the College observed Freshman Week for the first time in its history. The purpose of the freshman week exercises was to properly introduce the new students into Allegheny College life. In general the purposes in view were highly successful, giving the freshmen an opportunity to become acquainted with the faculty, the campus and the buildings, and with each other. Freshman Week also alleviated much worry on the part of the newcomers and gave them time to wear off the excitement of their new life before undertaking class work. The program also allowed the faculty to complete all psychological and entrance examinations before the opening of college, thus eliminating later confusion and delays.

Lectures by the faculty and others served to give the yearlings an insight into the traditions of Allegheny, its organization, and also what is expected of a freshman in his academic and social activities.

The program also provided for small groups of students to make tours, under faculty direction, of the campus and College buildings. The new students were also given an opportunity to learn the College songs and cheers, practicing them during the football scrimmage on Montgomery Field.

On Saturday afternoon a very delightful picnic was held for the freshmen at Miller's Stone Quarry, about a mile north of the campus. After enjoying a few games, the group roasted weiners over the coals of numerous camp-fires while several members of the Y. W. C. A. served ice cream and cake.

On Sunday morning a religious service was held in the Chapel, the sermon being delivered by President Beebe. The afternoon's program provided for a reception at the home of the President for the new students.

The complete program of activities during the week consisted of the following:

Thursday, Sept. 16—
6 P. M.—Dinner for freshmen by groups at Hulings Hall and Cochran Hall.
7-8 P. M.—Address, "The College Organization," Doctor Ross.
Friday, Sept. 17—
8 A. M.—"Conditions of Study," Doctor Darling.
9 A. M.—Tour of the campus by

Eight members of last year's teaching staff have left Allegheny to take positions in other institutions and some to do graduate work in Eastern universities.

He succeeds Whitney Coombs who has accepted a research position with the United States government at Washington. Harvey DeBruine succeeds Charles Packard in the Biological Department. Mr. Packard is now located at Bates College, Lewiston, Me. Mrs. Packard, who was assistant librarian here, is teaching in a preparatory school at Audubon, Me.

PITT DEFEATS BLUE AND GOLD ON RAIN-SOAKED GRIDIRON 9-7

Allegheny Offensive Completely Bewilders Sutherland's Team—Bad Break Favors Pitt

With lightning flashing and a driving torrent of rain sweeping across the huge stadium, Allegheny lost the initial grid game of the 1926 season on Saturday, September 25, when the Pitt Panthers managed to pluck a 9-7 win out of the semi-darkness. Although the final count was against them, the Blue and Gold team of Allegheny returned home with a decision that certainly belonged in the "moral victory" class, for in holding the admittedly far stronger University of Pittsburgh eleven to such a narrow margin of victory, Merritt's men turned a trick that astonished the entire football world of the East. A safety scored in the fourth quarter was all that saved the famed Sutherland combine from a tie, and to quote from a Pittsburgh paper, "It was Allegheny—not Pitt—that romped to its dressing room bearing a major share of the plaudits usually accorded the victor, for the Methodists actually took the game into their own hands for at least two quarters and rallied splendidly after apparently going to pieces with the boom of the first kickoff."

In the first quarter Pitt started out in a manner that promised to fulfill all expectations when the Panthers took the ball from Allegheny on the 20-yard line, and, with Hagan and Schmidt alternating in carrying the pigskin, made an 80-yard march down the field in ten plays that ended with a touchdown and Booth making the kick for the extra point. Immediately, however, Allegheny's eleven seemed to find themselves and settled down to unleashing an offensive of their own which certainly ruffled the Panther's fur. The famed forward passing attack came into being, and the ball moved steadily up the field. When Moon intercepted one of Pitt's few attempts in the way of passes and ran from his own 25-yard marker it looked as though he was headed for a touchdown with a clear field before him, but at the 47-yard line he was unable to see the chalk line and was forced out of bounds. Shortly after this, the half ended with the score at 7-0 in favor of Pitt.

As the second half opened, Pitt returned to the field with the same lineup, but Allegheny substituted its "pony" backfield composed of Waleski, Gillis, Davis and Brendel for the heavier or "horse" combination of Blackburn, Hudson, Moon and Maloney. This fresh strength was soon noticeable on the heavy field. Waleski made a fair catch on the Pitt 39 line, and, after one pass was grounded, the aerial fireworks began. Waleski

BETA KAPPA FRATERNITY PURCHASES NEW HOME

LORD PROPERTY AT MAIN AND RANDOLPH REMODELED DURING SUMMER

The opening of the new semester finds the Beta Kappa Fraternity moved from its former location at the foot of Spring Street to the L. L. Lord property at the corner of North Main and Randolph Streets. The purchase of the property was executed this summer through the chapter's trustees, Dr. H. W. Church and Donald C. Thompson. Contributions by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Arter of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Eugene Meyers of the same city have aided greatly in the transaction.

The new home is a spacious one, containing twenty-four rooms in all. The feature of the ground floor is a well furnished guest room with a bath attached. Each of the study rooms on the second floor is equipped with running water.

During the summer considerable reconstruction work amounting to several thousand dollars has been done under the direction of Doctor Church. The entire house has been re papered, and many new furnishings have been purchased. The painting of the exterior of the house has done much to brighten the appearance of the building.

The newly purchased home is excellently located in respect to both the town and the College, and it promises to provide a splendid home for the organization.

CHAPEL SERVICES TO BE OPTIONAL FOR SENIORS

After the regular Chapel service on Monday, September 27, Dr. C. F. Ross announced to the Seniors, at a special meeting, that chapel attendance for them would be optional for the remainder of the year. This action was taken because there are 601 students registered this semester, while there are only 570 seats in the Chapel. The Juniors will move into the seats formerly occupied by the Seniors, while several rows will be left in the rear of the center section for those seniors who desire to attend the Chapel services. This will not affect the seating arrangement of the other classes as the Sophomores will continue to sit to the right of the rostrum and the Freshmen to the left, with the Freshman girls being seated in the balcony.

NEW STUDENTS—WELCOME!

Once every year approximately one-third of Allegheny's former familiar faces are familiar no longer, due partly to graduation and partly to a change of Alma Mater. Always, however, in the course of human events there are others, be they better or worse, to take the place and position of those who have gone on.

This year there are two-hundred new students at our fair College representing several states and many communities. All to be the men and women of tomorrow.

It is to the above group that we wish to say: "You Are Welcome, and we hope that you, as all true Alleghenians do, will enter into the activities that are open to you, will strive to perfect yourself, do right, remember your home-training, be cordial to every member of the campus family and take all of the knocks that may come your way with a 'never die' spirit."

In that manner your college life and our college life will be a blessing and a pleasure to each of us, and then we will say: "We're glad that you're here."

Once again, may we say, WELCOME!

ARE YOU ONE-SIDED?

There is a type of student who enters Allegheny every year—one who is scarcely known except in the class room and is forgotten as soon as he is graduated. This student is the one who comes to college for one purpose only, to learn more from books. Outside of a study room or a class room he is entirely out of place. He is a one-sided individual. No one wants to be like him. So we urge under-classmen and freshmen especially to delve into extra-curricular as well as curricular activities to some extent. If you are interested in journalism get on one of the publications staffs, or if athletically inclined go out for football, basketball, track or swimming, join the Y. W. or Y. M. C. A., try out for the Glee Club or the College Band, and if you like debate get into the Philo-Franklin Forum.

Of course, do not misunderstand us to mean that you should try for all of these. That would be foolish. Nor do we mean that studies should be neglected, for, after all, they are the primary function of a college. We simply want to tell you that the College offers the opportunity for a well-rounded education and to warn you not to allow your life here to become one-sided.

WILL THE SIGHT NE'ER GROW OLD?

The Big Parade is on! Not at the movies or to the Pitt game—but merely to Chapel, and the usual crowd of on-lookers is to be seen clinging to the line of march. At the Chapel steps they mill about, crowding, stretching to catch a glimpse of some special attraction in "the parade"—even as six year olds scramble madly about to see the elephants and clowns of a circus parade. "There she goes!" may be heard frequently, and another scramble takes place, followed by more confusion and delay.

Surely, by this time, all Allegheny students must realize the poor impression that is made by the crowd which always congregates at the entrance to the Chapel. Every day the men of the school must stop and huddle about in groups on the steps in order to give the young ladies the "once over." Of course, most girls do not object to being in "The Big Parade", but there are those who do—and after all it is unnecessary.

It would seem that most tete-a-tetes could be held at some other time. Surely, the men can forego the pleasure of the parade and enter the building in orderly manner, which would be far more dignified and would certainly save time and prevent confusion at the entrance.

CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

During the past summer several improvements have been made on the campus and on the equipment of the College. New concrete sidewalks were laid wherever necessary, extensive grading done, and new shrubbery set out to add to the beauty of the grounds.

Several of the buildings were also improved to some extent during the vacation period. In the gymnasium the basketball floor was resanded and revarnished. The rooms in Cochran Hall and Hulings Hall were redecorated and refurnished. In addition, the office of the Dean of Women has been located in a more central position near the front entrance in Hulings Hall, and a special office has been given to the Y. W. C. A. and the Women's Senate. The living room and loggia of the Hall, as well as the green parlors, have been thrown open for the use of callers.

New steel shelving is being placed in the Library, and the interior of Carnegie Hall is being repainted.

Early in the summer the interior of the home of President Beebe was redecorated, and the building was also connected with the central heating plant of the College.

FRESHMAN CLASS GIVEN RULES AND REGULATIONS

FIRST YEAR MEN RECEIVE RIGID CODE INSCRIBED ON YELLOW SHEET

Following the sale of the new blue and gold caps and the distribution of the proclamation, the freshmen rules went into effect on Monday at 1:15 P. M. In order to give the freshmen a better opportunity to become acclimated to the College, the rules were not put into effect immediately with the opening of classes.

The new regulations were formulated according to custom by the Student Senate, and with two or three exceptions very few changes have been made in the new rules from those of preceding years. The proclamation is to be enforced by the men of the class of 1929, and all cases of violation will be dealt with by the Student Senate Court.

In order that everyone may become acquainted with the rules they are reprinted below:

1. All Freshmen must wear the regulation Freshman cap at all times, Sundays and holidays excepted, until Easter vacation.
2. Freshmen must use only the sidewalks on the campus.
3. Freshmen are not permitted to loiter about the Chapel, or any of the College buildings, but must enter and take their seats immediately.
4. Freshmen may not hold any class functions without first securing the permission of the Student Senate.
5. Freshmen must not accompany co-eds on the campus between 8 A. M. and 6 P. M.
6. Freshmen must wear black socks and black ties.
7. Freshmen must carry baggage for members of the athletic teams to and from the station during the year.
8. Freshmen must be present at all athletic contests and obey the orders of the College Cheer Leader, both at the games and afterwards in preparing bonfires when so directed.

10. Freshmen must speak respectfully to every male student.
11. Freshmen must carry regulation Freshman Bible at all times.
12. Freshmen must keep coats buttoned at all times while on the campus and within immediate vicinity of the College.
13. Freshmen must remove their caps immediately upon entering College buildings.
14. Freshmen must learn the Freshmen Speech and repeat same at request of an upper-classman.
15. All violations of these rules will be brought before the Student Senate Court and dealt with accordingly.

SIGS TAKE UP TEMPORARY SPRING STREET QUARTERS

With work on their new house on North Main Street well under way, Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity has moved to a temporary location in the former Beta Kappa house at 166 Spring Street. This property has been rented until March 1, when the new home will be ready for occupancy.

This new addition to the fraternity houses of Allegheny will be of the modern fraternity dormitory type. The suite system, with sleeping quarters immediately adjoining each study room, is the plan for the upper floors. All furnishings in the house will be new and consultation concerning the downstairs furniture is now under way with an interior decorator. At present rapid progress is being made with the construction work, and it is expected that the roofing will be laid within the next week.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of Pi Delta Epsilon on Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the Quill Club room at the Library. All members are requested to be present

SEVEN GIRLS FROM ALLEGHENY AND MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGES FORM PARTY

During the past summer Miss Grace M. Bacon, instructor of German at Allegheny College, organized a party consisting of seven girls from Allegheny and Mount Holyoke Colleges and conducted her annual tour of Europe.

The group sailed from New York City on June 18 aboard the Pennland and returned to the States on September 8, via the steamer Paris. The itinerary included the countries of England, Scotland, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, and France.

The four weeks' tour in England and Scotland was occupied by visits to the principal cathedrals and universities, and a ten day sojourn in and about London.

The quaint old cities of Bruges, Ghent, Brussels, and Antwerp were visited during the week in Belgium and Holland. There were also excursions by canal boats and steamers to the many points of interest.

A railway trip to the top of the Jungfrau mountain was one of the features of the European tour. The party spent a Sunday in Oberammergau where they became acquainted with Anton Lang, a prominent character in the Oberammergau Passion Play.

In Switzerland the group of young travelers engaged in bob-sledding parties and in the vigorous sport of mountain climbing. A fifteen day tour of France, taking in a journey over the battlefields of the World War, and a sojourn in Paris marked the completion of the itinerary.

Opportunities for the speaking of French and German were abundant, and instruction was given throughout the summer by the conductor.

FOURTEEN FACULTY NAMES APPEAR IN WHO'S WHO

ALLEGHENY COLLEGE MAKES BETTER SHOWING THAN OTHER SCHOOLS

That the names of 14 of the 39 faculty members at Allegheny College appear in the 1926 edition of Who's Who in America and that the percentage of Allegheny professors attaining this honor is greater than that of any other among a list of nineteen Pennsylvania colleges, is the information contained in statistics compiled recently. Thirty-six per cent representation in Who's Who is the record of the faculty of the College, while Dickinson, with 26 per cent, is second.

Included in the list of 19 Pennsylvania colleges from which the statistics were taken are Allegheny, Bryn Mawr, Bucknell, Dickinson, Franklin and Marshall, Geneva, Gettysburg, Grove City, Haverford, Lafayette, Lehigh, Muhlenberg, Penn State, Swarthmore, Susquehanna, Thiel, Ursinus, Washington and Jefferson, Westminster. Eight of these institutions have larger faculties than Allegheny. The total number of faculty members in the 19 schools is 1317, with 137 of these represented in the American Who's Who.

COLLEGE BAND TO ORDER THIRTY NEW UNIFORMS

On Thursday afternoon, September 23, the initial rehearsal of the College Band was held in Ford Memorial Chapel. The new material supplied by the freshman class, together with the men returning to school, promises a very successful year. The band members will wear blue uniforms trimmed in gold braid this year in place of the sweaters which they have worn for the past two years.

The leader of the band for this year is James A. Meadowcroft, who takes the place of Robert Willison. The band plans to play at all the College football games at home, and also at the game in Erie. If the new uniforms arrive and financial backing is secured, the band also expects to go to the West Virginia game.

NOTICE ALUMNI

The Allegheny-New York University Football Game will be played on Saturday, October 2, on Ohio Field at New York University, 181st Street and University Avenue. Ohio Field is reached from Pennsylvania Station by the Sixth or Ninth Avenue Elevated and from the Grand Central Station by the Jerome Avenue Subway to the 180th Street Station.

ALUMNUS HEADS GREAT PUBLIC UTILITY COMPANY

A. W. THOMPSON, '97, ASSUMES PRESIDENCY OF UNITED GAS IMPROVEMENT CO.

Arthur W. Thompson, '97, president of the Philadelphia Company since January 1, 1919, has severed his connections with that company to become the president of the United Gas Improvement Company of Philadelphia.

For many years Mr. Thompson has been connected with Pittsburgh activities and has taken a prominent part in the city's progress. In leaving the Philadelphia Company, Mr. Thompson enters a wider field of public utility—in fact, the largest public utility corporation in the United States, its total capitalization being $1,075,100,000. It has more than one hundred affiliations with other companies and operates in thirty-seven communities in eighteen states. Its gross earnings each year amount to more than $110,000,000. In addition to his present position, Mr. Thompson is a member of numerous directorate boards and will retain membership on all which are not subsidiary to the Philadelphia Company. Among these are the Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, and the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The following article from a Pittsburgh newspaper expresses well the regard that Pittsburgh holds for Mr. Thompson: "Pittsburgh will always hold Arthur W. Thompson in grateful remembrance as the man who, more than any other, created and developed here the spirit of mutual goodwill, of confidence and trust, that is indispensable to good relationships between public utility companies and the people they serve. It was no light task that Mr. Thompson assumed in 1919 when the relations between Pittsburgh and its utility companies were more than strained. But under his management the businesses have prospered; they have been greatly expanded; they are now popularly regarded as real factors in the steady growth of the Pittsburgh community; and the people are better satisfied than ever they were in the past."

Mr. Thompson was graduated from Allegheny in 1897 and since that time has taken a keen interest in the College and its welfare, being at the present time president of the Board of Trustees of the College. He is one of the outstanding Allegheny Alumni and one of whom the College is justly proud.

Hulings Hall News

On Tuesday evening, September 21, a meeting of the freshmen girls was held in the living room of Hulings Hall for the purpose of introducing and explaining the laws governing the sorority rushing season. A copy of the local Panhellenic rules was given to each freshman. The rules went into effect at seven-thirty, Tuesday morning.

The women of the College have been permitted to use the swimming pool in the College gymnasium, Saturday evening from seven until ten o'clock. Regulation tank suits, which may be ordered from the physical instructor, are required.

The Y. W. C. A. held a steak roast on Wednesday afternoon, so that the upper classmen might become better acquainted with the freshmen. The girls left Hulings Hall at five-thirty and in groups, followed a blazed trail to the selected spot. Steak, rolls and home made ginger cookies were served.

A house meeting was held on Thursday evening at Hulings Hall, Ruth Hunter presiding. The new fire captain, Mina French, explained the revised rules for fire drills. Dean Wren Staley spoke to the girls about the general care of the hall. After the meeting, Seniors received their privileges for the coming year.

The cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. were hostesses at a tea given in the living room of Hulings for the freshman girls and the faculty ladies.

Y. W. WEEK CELEBRATED BY WOMEN OF COLLEGE

In order to make the new students feel perfectly at home and to give them an opportunity to meet the upper class women, the opening week of College is known as Y. W. week at Hulings Hall. Sorority pins are laid aside, group distinctions are abolished and everyone enters into the spirit of the occasion in an attempt to give the new women a pleasing impression of college life during their first week away from home.

On Wednesday afternoon, September 22, a steak fry was held, the freshmen women being the guests of the three upper classes. This event was informal and aided materially in fostering acquaintances. Several meetings were also held where the new women were instructed in the rules and regulations governing dormitory life. On Friday, the annual tea for the faculty ladies wes held.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF YEAR

DR. J. R. SCHULTZ TO SUPERVISE ORGANIZED SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUP

The opening of the Allegheny School of Practical Christianity was held at the Stone M. E. Church on Sunday, September 26, at 9:30 o'clock. This year the Allegheny School is being held in conjunction with the organization of Stone Church, although its classes are entirely separated from those of the church. Dr. J. R. Schultz is supervising the work of the school and is in charge of the open forum.

Last Sunday Doctor Darling spoke before the forum on the topic of "Science and Religion." The purpose of the open forum is to give the students an opportunity to express their thoughts concerning modern problems of life and religion, and also to give the group an opportunity to hear a prominent, nationally known educational man at least once a month.

Other class groups are under the direction of Dr. I. R. Beiler and Dr. W. F. Woodring. Doctor Beiler will lead in a discussion of practical problems of Christianity, taking up debated points of biblical interpretation. The class under Doctor Woodring will use the International Uniform Lessons for Sunday School upon which the discussions will be based.

Another class under the direction of Mrs. W. F. Woodring will open their discussions in leadership training October 17. The reason for the delay in opening this class is to make preparations for practical field work along the theory of leadership.

PITT DEFEATS ALLEGHENY

threw a pass to Davis that was good for 12 yards and a first down on the Pitt 26 marker. Waleski fumbled a pass from Davis, but he recovered the ball and on the next play tossed the pigskin to Davis who romped down the sodden field for a touchdown. Waleski added the extra point from a placement kick and Allegheny's little band of rain-drenched rooters forgot their sad plight in a wild outburst of enthusiasm as the score boards came up with a 7-7 score.

But Lady Luck deserted her Allegheny followers to hide under an umbrella, and the toughest kind of a break ended the tie and gave Pitt the game. Late in the fourth quarter a hard thunderstorm drenched the field until it was scarcely possible to see the players, and during this time both teams lost the ball several times. Finally a Pitt fumble was recovered on the 8-yard line but a change in the signals confused several of the Allegheny players and in the mix-up the ball was dropped behind the goal line. Davis scarcely had time to drop it before the Pitt center fell on him, and thus the Panther picked up two extra points and the victory. Shortly after this Pitt tried for a field goal, but the kick was blocked. As the game ended Pitt had recovered the ball on the two yard line, and the final whistle probably prevented another score.

In the manner of their playing, the entire Blue and Gold team showed themselves to be well advanced for this time of the season, and the debut of Coach Merritt and his new system was more than pleasing. During the first half of the game Allegheny completed six passes in ten attempts and in the second half it made good four out of ten. Of the 165 yards gained during the game, 115 were gained by the aerial route. The first downs were: Pitt 13, Allegheny 7.

ALLEGHENY FACES STRONG NEW YORK TEAM SATURDAY

GAME IN EAST TO BE GREAT TEST FOR COACH MERRITT'S SQUAD

On Saturday, October 2, the Blue and Gold team will be assigned to one of the hardest battles of the season when it meets New York University, at New York.

As the facts go, New York University has a wonderful team, and one that can stand up against hard and fast fighting. Last Saturday Niagara University was downed by a score of 32-0. This feat was accomplished through fine football and constant pep and punch on the part of the New Yorkers, who have an abundant reserve of fighting spirit.

The Niagara team, although sluggish, outweighed the New York men by a good many pounds, but that factor did not seem to slow up the Eastern team a bit. They fought every minute that they played, and, when the final whistle blew, they had run up a 32 point score, completely shutting Niagara out. The New York first team was used less than one complete half. During the game substitutions were made almost at random on the part of the New Yorkers.

The difficulties that Allegheny will meet lie in about three things: a heavy and fast team, especially the line; a speedy fighting backfield, and a quarter back of unusual cleverness. In addition to these facts, the Blue and Gold will face a whirlwind running and aerial attack at the hands of Conner, the quarter back.

The New York backfield probably will be represented by Brianta at full, who weighs about 175 pounds; Conner at quarter, 165 pounds; Strong and Reordan at the half positions, 190 and 188 pounds respectively. This combination is very strong and fast. Conner, who does a good deal of the passing, is exceptionally accurate and fast. Reordan is a fine line plunger and a hard man to stop. He runs exceedingly well in an open field and also has the knack of side-stepping which makes him a dangerous man and one who will bear watching. At different times during the game last Saturday with Niagara, the New York backs got away after being tackled hard and made long gains. The spirit of plugging and forging ahead seemed to be the keynote of the condition of the New York team.

Niagara scored but four first downs during the game, one of these being made on a line plunge and the other three on passes. In brief, New York will present eleven men who make up a fighting team, a machine that is smooth and in condition.
