August 1,1914

My dear Mrs. Fitch:

I did not believe that my opinion on anything in the world could give so much satisfaction to anybody as my judgement about"Colin McCabe, Renegade,"seems to have given you. I want you to know that I really was very jubilant when Miss Roseboro' told me that you had written it. I have always remembered "The Lady with the Waterfall"; though it had not occurred to me that you might be the author of "Colin McCabe," I could quite see you doing it. As a piece of work its craftsmanship seems to me very superior; and then it has so much feeling, humor, and insight. I felt a little sore that they did not give you the second prize.

I hope this winter sometime when you are in town you will let me know so that we can have a visit together.

Very sincerely yours

Mrs. Anna Fitch,
Annadale, Richmond Co.,
N.Y.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library