My dear Miss Tarbell,

I am now very near to attain my goal and I think the right moment has come to express to you my deep indebtedness for all you did to back me and to help me out. I never wrote to you in these last years but I never have forgotten your friendship and your goodheartedness. I do hope that in the next future I shall be able to meet you there and to express better than I am now doing my feeling.

With kind regards I beg to remain, dear Miss Tarbell,

Sincerely yours
V. D. Macchioro
