Dear Friend:

I have read the enclosed and am returning it to you for your file as you may wish to keep the signature.

I fully concur in the wisdom of awaiting the verdict.

Will you be so good as to let her know when you write that my lawyer who died suddenly while preparing the case for court said:

"It is a well settled rule of law that when the by-laws of an organization embody a description of the insignia of that organization it constitutes a contract between the officers of that organization and the members that such insignia and no other shall be furnished and consequently the by-laws may not be changed or amended except by written consent of every member"

In this case impossible

as many members have been laid to rest in the more than a quarter of a century of use of the Recognition Pin."

There is to me, no lack of interest in this reply, and I shall be most grateful if you will advise, as requested, when verdict is reached.

As I did not have a sordid motive and did not realize profits but worked for the pleasure it gave me, I am informed by my attorneys that owing to the congested condition of the courts my case may be again dismissed.

As no answer was made to my charges I am wondering can they make charges in the Court of Appeals where I am not allowed to aid a word to my original charge (Burglar)

Your experience with the burglar was indeed a trial and I feel for you with an understanding such as comes only after similar experience - I am so miserably weak but am better today and sitting up - No the bread only costs 15 cts but every body wants it and it is considered a great treat as it is so hard to get. With every good wish to you & your dear Mother Sincerely

I am E. D. Key
