June 11, 1923

Mr. Percy C. Eastment,
The McClure Newspaper Syndicate,
373 Fourth Avenue, New York.

Dear Percy:

I have just been looking over our agreement, and find of course that the division of costs, of illustrations and proof setting to whoch I objected is plainly laid down there and my name to it. I probably read it before I signed it, but certainly I did it without knowing what I was doing. It is all right, of course. Please forget my letter of May 17.

What I should like, however, is the monthly statement which the agreement calls for and which I have never had. Will you not kindly see that this is sent me?

Faithfully yours,

Digital Images, 2011. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944. Allegheny College Pelletier Library.