Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 E. 19th St.,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Replying to your letter of the 4th, I can not give you the exact date when your Chautauqua lecturing will begin, but it will be approximately June 10th. Your first date will not be more than a day or two earlier than that, or a day or two later, and it may be exactly on June 10th. That is as near as I can say now.

I regret it is impossible for you to be with us in Cleveland during our convention the last week of this month, but I quite understand why you cannot come, and I thank you for your interest. If you would care to write a letter that might be read at our banquet the evening of February 25th we would appreciate it very much.

Yours sincerely,

THE COIT-ALBER CHAUTAUQUA CO.

LJA-MM.
