Dear Lady

I must have received a presumptious fool - if you heard me - this morning. If I got over as badly as you did it - was a mercy. I think I got had an idea and was not presump-

tions feeling inside.
My characteristic
assiduity was to feel
as if a word
could be any good
where the notion
was absurd, where
the color of an era
was involved.
Pardon appearances.
As always, Vick R—
