Beloved Ida M. Tarbell,

I cannot tell you how much I liked your letter--that you thought of me and felt like writing that kind, with so much affection.

The "reminder" is gorgeous. I expect to make a sensation the rest of my life!

I hope you are thinking of Connecticut and that you won't forget I am your neighbor.

Bee Carter has had trouble with her tooth and is a semi-invalid at the Settlement now but getting loving care from the people there.

With affectionate greetings,

Yours devotedly,

Lillian D Wald
