Miss Thelma Wolfe,

New York City.

Dear Miss Wolfe:-

Thank you for your letter of the 23rd advising me that Miss Tarbell expects to write the Lincoln article within a few weeks.

I know, of course, just how busy a woman Miss Tarbell is, for even the public press keeps me informed as to that. She has been very gracious in this whole matter and I have no wish whatever to interfere with her own disposition of her own time, but of course I should greatly like to see her write the article in question.

Be good enough to give Miss Tarbell my high regards.

Very sincerely yours,
