My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am in receipt of your recent letter and in reply will say that I am very glad, indeed, to send you the Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society, Volume 16, April-July 1923, which contains "The Story of a Poem." I am glad to supply you with these Journals whenever I can.

I am pleased to note that you are to be in Springfield sometime after the 15th and I trust you will be able to spend a part of the time with us in the Library.

With kindest personal regards,

Yours very truly,

Georgia L. Osborne.
