Dear V. R. M. Y.

This day came my Dearest gar and Precious Money, thank you and thank you. And the Rest Money — so grateful have. I know that Money — so grateful as a letter writer could ahead of, taking the enemy's every movement as well as the same appearing, and has got some phrases so good they should become classic in that field of course you know that fine the first of them are! Then fine to bring em to work ignorance as France Of course this talk of mine as to your Reeny Lin is not meant to be as presuming as it seems. Yan may have reasons to— anyhow I'm yours, — I was Thinking of that Europe is more broken & drawn and I being so indefinitely delayed since the days I must see Tarbell, I fear & fear many things may detain me and I am not anxious to make this—this added as it would mean on my part. Then any thing else.

You'll tell
J. S. P. of my request and tell Burt I got his letter & he pleased.
Thanking you, very much

Friday.

I hope I can make Mistletoe as big a success as Lux. S.S. being good for a whole year.

Love from
