November 9, 1934

Dear Mr. Gumm:

You wrote me some little time ago about a November broadcast of "He Knew Lincoln" by Chic Sale. Were you able to arrange it, and if so when is it to come off? I should like to hear what he does with it.

Have you ever seriously considered "He Knew Lincoln" as the nucleus for a play? I have always believed there was something there for screen or stage - something on a large scale. What do you think about it?

Very sincerely
