Dear Mr. Chenery:

What does Mr. Goodman mean by the original manuscript? The one from which you print? If so, of course, I have no objection to your sending it to him. I have the original notes in long hand of that piece I find and the long hand revision of these notes - also the first typewritten try at it. You have the last result. I could, of course, put all this into shape if that is what he is after,- but not immediately. I am off for a month's work in Arizona - shall be gone until the end of March I expect. If he wants all this stuff I could get it together for him then. My address at Tucson is:

℅ Mrs. Frederick McCormick
R.F.D.#2 - Box 59B
Tucson, Arizona

Sincerely yours

Mr. William L. Chenery
