Major General Robert C. Davis
The Adjutant General's Office
War Department
Washington, D.C.

My dear General Davis:

Thank you for your letter acknowledging the list of question which I recently sent to your Department. I fear it was unreasonably long. What I thought was that you might have at hand documents to which you could refer me which would answer my questions. I did not expect "extensive researches or compilations", nor would I feel that I had a right to ask them of a Department which I realize is generally overloaded with work.

If you cannot refer me to the sources where I would find at least an approximate answer to my questions, please let the matter drop.

With appreciation of your courtesy, believe me

Very truly yours
