Wednesday A.M.

My Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Your letter of August 13th. has just come to me as it miscarried so I hasten to reply.

Your suggested plan pleases me very much and whatever in your judgement would be best for the Center will be perfectly satisfactory to me.

I will be glad to cooperate by coming to you or receiving you here whenever you wish and in any way you may suggest.

I am expecting to be out of town all of next week.

Cordially,

Stanford C. Hexamer
