DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON

December 5th, 1914.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

On my return I find your letter of the 3rd, already acknowledged by my secretary. I shall go to Richmond Wednesday afternoon and will be very busy in the forenoon of that day. I return on the afternoon of the 11th. I could see you on Saturday morning from 11 to 12 or Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4. The latter time would be much less subject to interruptions and I would prefer it. Is either of the above satisfactory?

Yours very truly,

William C. Redfield

Secretary.
