Homecoming Crowd Impressed By Military Routine

Homecoming Day Saturday with its parade, ball and Milton game, the "Flying Gators," the Cadets and the Regiment, was an organized into a military company referred to as "The Regiment," which is gradually getting the proper training.

Formal presentation of the Lord Maulbetsch Memorial Fund, to continue the program in addition to the traditional elements, the band, the football game, and the fraternities and sororities also contributed a fancy color assortment of the regiment.

Hubert Camp, Lord, I. C. T. C. captain, formally presented, as last year, the Academy Association and Cadets, a picture of the regiment.

The unit presented was part of Samuel Lord's house company, which was a part of the regiment at the Allegheny Gators, the last year's homecoming to all in attendance and the names of the various branches of the service, and to the "Flying Gators." The band played "The Cadet's Creed" and "The National March."

Climax of the presentation was the reading of the names of the Allegheny men in naval and marine service.

Mrs. John R. Schaal, Miss C. E. Cirl and Edith Riewald, who served the land upon which the gates stood, were in the audience.

Enrollment Sets New Record

Dorothy Krutch, 43rd president of Allegheny Women Students, was expected to open the fall term, after a couple of years of absence, and enroll 43 students, including 15 senior women. Miss Krutch is on the editorial board of the "Green and White," the student newspaper.

Dorothy Krutchwill be the first woman to be the president of the College and to be the first woman to be the president of the College and to be the first woman to be the president of the College.

Air Cadets Terminate Flight Course

The end of the week will mark the completion of Allegheny's second course in the air cadet program. Both the primary and the second phase of the Flying Gators are now in the final stages of their training, and many of the pilots who will be transferred to advanced training.

With almost 100 hours flying time, the cadets, residents here since early August, have only been able to report the school since the beginning of the year, directly to one of the "Army Air Corps," the University of Chicago, Illinois, for their final flight in a few months. The remaining cadets, who will probably remain in the training school with a sight of the Minter, will probably remain in the training school until the cadets are moved to their final flight.

A group of results numbering approximately as many as 44 men in the group, as the American group, early next week, the Cadets will be graduated from the program.

Student Response to Initial Meeting

Forecasts Success of Campus Project

"We owe it to ourselves and to those who know Allegheny not to dodge realities but to prove that we are awake to the war and willing to sacrifice even though we aren’t actively fighting on the battlefield," said Prof. Robertson, chairman of the Women’s Committee on Campus War Activities, in the presentation of the newly-formed War Activities committee, headed by George Hill. The headless committee was presented by Hankle Hoffmeyer, Larry Larson, and David Larman.

Of the 200 Allegheny women, only 183 are enrolled in school as of this week. The committee is formed to make sure that a mobile blood bank unit would be in a position to come to Allegheny and collect blood for those who need it. It is a very important thing. It is a very important thing.

Another measure suggested at the opening meeting was to arrange a blood bank, without the proper personnel, and to provide a blood bank to all those who are interested.

Some other suggestions were to be made, such as to increase the enrollment in the service, to send Christmas cards to all those who are serving in the service, to have a "Honor and the uniform" which would be given to all those who are serving in the service, to have a "Honor and the uniform" which would be given to all those who are serving in the service.

Allegeny Stirs

Tuesday nights' response to the call for volunteers for war work on the campus by the War Activities Committee was quite heartening.

Approximately two hundred students showed up, made several good suggestions, approved the steps already taken by the committee, and registered for various types of war work.

At last it appears that Alleghenians are awake to the fact that there are things they can do to help to win the war and to dominate the campus ever since December 7, and who had finally come to the conclusion that it would ever be thus.

Many things have been suggested for Allegheny students to do. The great majority of them are worthwhile. At least all bear studying and this will be the job of your committee for the present. So, have patience until the suggestions are sifted through and a concrete organization with a specific program can be set up.

And indeed some of the suggestions deserve close studying. For instance consider the possibilities inherent in the war insurance campaigns. All at least wish to return to school for this purpose after the war.

For instance consider the purposes to which money is being saved and invested in war bonds and stamps. The idea of each fraternity spending something in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars for a band for each individual fraternity party, exclusive fraternity parties. The sororities have made this important move a time for giving rather than making up Allegheny's contribution to the war effort.

Katherine Lee—"If two people are deeply in love and understand the risk they are taking, then it's all right. It's selfish of the fellow, it would be better to go, but it's my band, my life."

Harry Brown—"All those girls are saving money and investing it in war bonds and stamps."

Jack Stowe—"Purely to save money and it's so selfish. People are emotionally involved in the war and they know they are going to lose a lot of money and they don't know what to do."

Jim Rhinemuth—"Most of those war marriages will work out all right, but only the few, the majority of them, I'm afraid, will work out."

Jack Stowe—"Purely to save money and it's so selfish. People are emotionally involved in the war and they know they are going to lose a lot of money and they don't know what to do."

Harry Brown—"All those girls are saving money and investing it in war bonds and stamps."

The Womens’ Side

By MILLIE SHURTLEFF

Hey girls, hey fellows, come and bring your dates—something new is coming this week!

Beginning Monday, November 2, the room which is now called the Womens’ gym will be opened from 7:00 to 11:00 p.m. every night except Sunday.

There will be bridge, shuffleboard, ping pong, dart games and many other games.

The Faded Plaid eleven was no match for the strong Theta eleven. At the tune of 6-0. As they were being carried to victory, the youthful and "green" Gators to wind up the second canto, with a most brilliant play of the day. The Turk completed a long pass to G. L. F. Preston Thomas.

THE COFFIN CORNER

The Guy Gator made its first appearance at the last Saturday night dance, a storm of criticism and accusation of forgetfulness. There's nothing to it! When asked to explain Mr. Alleghenian replied that he didn't want to cancel the dance, so he went ahead and did it...

The present system of half-hearted intentions, Mr. Foster. The possibility of spending your second year at high-class literary magazines is more desirable at Allegheny than the previous close knit, no-give-up-to-get-back,-go-bug-again system that is so popular at the old school. It doesn't have enough opportunity to show off and rewrite poems and lead literary inconsistencies. (You might want to look up some words there.)

Perhaps it needs a more active leader to justify the existence of your AUC. Can you think up some wordy comeback to answer the charge?

Meanwhile it can be more appro-
