Dear Miss Tarbell;
My daughter in law tells me of her recent conversation over the telephone, in which you said that you could not undertake anymore work - Won't you give me the pleasure of coming to see me as I am not allowed to leave me room,

I would so like to give you a few of the interesting facts in my life — as I know you have many in your own — which may interest you. Will you set a time at your convenience? Kindly let me know in advance when I may expect the pleasant visit

Yours very sincerely
Annette M. Thurber

Kindly return
the enclosures —
