Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

American Magazine,

381 Fourth Avenue, City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

We are greatly pleased at your decision to cooperate with us on the "Woman's Book". Your understanding of our proposition is substantially correct, and I shall write you a letter shortly, stating more specifically what each of us will undertake to do. I have been away for a week, and wish to get off some matters that require immediate attention before writing the letter referred to, to you.

Again assuring you that we are all delighted that you are to help us, I am

Yours very sincerely

Horatio S. Krans
