Dear Miss Tarbell:

I called up Liberty about that article of yours, LADIES AT THE BAR. They say they are writing me a letter saying that they will take the article. I asked them two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500.) so I hope they will pay that amount. They asked me when they would get the article. Would you let me know about this?

I called you up but was told your telephone didn't answer. I presume that if you are still at Atlantic City that this letter will be forwarded.

Yours sincerely,

Paul R. Reynolds.
