Mr. Walter Graves,
208 The Northern
Wichita, Kansas.

My dear Mr Graves:

I have not thanked you for sending me a copy of your new lecture "Lincoln and Fundamentalism" chiefly cause it was not until this week that I found time to read the paper. I think it is about the best thing that you have done. I hope that you will get a hearing for it.

You ask if I have any objection to your using a portion of my letter of the 14th of August. Not at all. It is entirely proper that you should do so and better that you use something from an informal letter than for me to try to form a formal appreciation.

It is a pleasure to hear from your daughter. I am glad that she is finding so much of interest in France. I am returning the newspaper clipping to you, thinking you may have use for it elsewhere.

Sincerely yours,
