Dear Miss Tarbell:

We want you to come to dinner this week when you are down. Could you come down on the 30th, Thursday, in time to dine with us? If not, may we count on your coming Saturday? If you could come Thursday, we are expecting Felix Frankfurter, the Brandeis's and possibly Jeanette Rankin. Saturday we will probably not have other guests — Just as you like, arrange it — I shall be mighty glad, whichever it is.

I have your note. Thank you — My delegation is ready now for your approval. I am teaching

Mrs Wilkes all I can of what I know, and with her own battery of abilities she will, I am sure, hold the line. Miss Scott will stay for a time, and I'll help as long as it seems fitting.

Love.

Gertrude.

May twenty six 1st.

Mrs E. P. Shelby.
