THIS LETTER WRITTEN FROM
SUITE 1107-1111 HEALY BUILDING ATLANTA Jan. 21, 1918.

Miss Ida Tarbell,
#132 East 19th St.,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Yours of January 18th is just to hand and carefully noted.

In the meantime I had practically accepted the Chattanooga engagement at $100. since it is for the benefit of a church as suggested in our last letter. I am writing today asking that they make your date in Chattanooga February 6th, however, which will leave one day open between Birmingham and Chattanooga and also one day open between Chattanooga and Rock Hill, so that you will have easy travel. I will comply with your request and not fill any of these other dates unless I should get a chance to do so at the regular fee. If you feel later like speaking on some of these open dates at the camps I will gladly arrange it for you.

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

S R Bridges

President.
