Dear Miss Tarbell

I found your piece in the January Ladies Home Journal very edifying indeed. I did not know that any body knew about, and had analysed the difficulty of cooperation with a woman who is doing a man's business. I have seen cases of it but I did not know they conformed to a general law.

I don't know that my labors are going to shine in the society of you and Miss Addams. You are very formidable associates for a miscellaneous hackwriter like me who has no specialties.

Yours truly

Edward C. Martin
