Galesburg Ills May 18th 1896

Dear Miss Tarbell

In reply to your letter of the 13th, I think that the fact that,
with all his publics, Mr Lincoln took between 1840 and 1860 from 90
to 100 cases in the Ills Supreme Court is a fact of very considerable significance and if I were you I would bring it out prominently

Thanking you

lawyers outside of Chicago who at that time had so many. Mr Lincoln certainly was a fine lawyer.

When will my article appear? I hope you will not let it be crowded out by the abundance of matter you are receiving. I think that if it will appear by fall, it will help me in my Candidacy for U S

Senator - Dont let it be cut down so as to spoil it.

I suppose that Mr McClure is still abroad, but of course he will be home in time for Sam x College Commencement - week opening Monday June 9th and Closing Saturday 13th - { Thursday, 11th is the great day

We would be glad to see you in Salisbury.

Sincerely Yours

Clark E Carr
