Mr. Waldo Lincoln,
Worcester, Mass.

Dear Mr. Lincoln:

I promised you a copy of the outline map of the settlement to which Mordecai and Abraham Lincoln made their way when they first went to New Jersey. Here it is.

Mordecai's father-in-law bought the 2100 acres within the dotted line, originally owned by John Baker. Abraham Lincoln owned about 400 acres a mile or so east of "B"

A) Robins' burying ground, where Deborah was buried in 1720.

B) Old Yellow Meeting House where John Saltar, father-in law of Mordecai Lincoln, was buried in 1723.

C) Supposed site of Richard Saltar's house.

D) Site of Old Forge, locally called Lincoln Forge.

This map was made for me by Mr. C. F. Hutchinson, an antiquarian of Allentown, N.J. Mr. Hutchinson is at least 84 years old.

Possibly I should say that the settlement is about 35 miles north-east of Philadelphia, and some 15 miles to the south-east of Trenton.

Hoping this will be of some use to you, believe me, with very best wishes to both you and Mrs. Lincoln,

Faithfully yours,
