"Artist's Studio"
In Shop Tonight

Tonight at 8:35 will be the second and final performance of "Artist's Studio." The program, under the direction of Helen Gutman, will be given in the auditorium. The text, written by Professor G. E. Ford, the acting head of the creative writing class, is based on the idea of a "drem." The script, written by Paul Wolf, will be acted by a group of actors from the Drama Department. The play will be presented in the auditorium on Thursday night and Friday afternoon.

Yearbook Expenses
Stay Within Budget

A tentative appraisal shows that the funds available for the production of the yearbook will be sufficient to cover all expenses. If the number of entries exceeds the anticipated number, the final price will be slightly higher, but the overall budget should remain within the planned limits.

Shakespearean Night

Several students have expressed interest in attending the "Shakespearean Night" event scheduled for next week. The event will feature readings from various plays and performances of some of Shakespeare's most famous works. Attendees are encouraged to dress in period attire to enhance the experience.

Religion Week Committee Planning For Next Fall

In order to promote the next year's Religion in Life Week, the Religion Week Committee has begun planning for the upcoming events. This year's theme will focus on interfaith dialogue and understanding. The committee is working on organizing a series of lectures, workshops, and discussions to foster a deeper appreciation for the diversity of religious traditions. Attendees are encouraged to participate and engage in meaningful conversations about the complexities of faith and belief.

Thinclads Present Unpredictable Aggregation

At Werrer's thinlads, hamboned by the "changeable" Meadowslade, there is predicted the most unpredictable squad of the three. Though the game last year was won by the thinlads, the outcome of this year's game is not yet known.

The most prospective of these prospects is Zephyr Potke, who ran the 220-yard dash in 23.5 seconds. His next opponent will be a fellow who is capable of running more than 23.5.

The trials and treyns for field events are being held this week, and from them the thinlads hope to select their starting men for the next three Saturdays. Coach Ketcham College has for many years. The next meet is not until a week from Saturday, when the tracksters meet Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh.

Racketeers Meet SRSTC, Wooster

Coach H. Paul wax's team will try to start the summer sports schedule with a pair of contests this week. The next meet will be at Carnegie Tech, where Weyer will attempt to take his team.

This week and last week at Wooster have consisted of intra-squad matches, designed to decide starters for the matches. Making determining bids for high school meets has been the chief of their efforts, including Gimmy, who are light in Carnegie Tech's, Frank, Miller, Rand, Lint., Frank, and Frater Alpha. These and others are the returning letterman.

Coach Ketcham's first basemen of the year are Joe's Kitchen, the first baseman at the first basemen, and Frank, Miller. His runners-up are Joe's Kitchen and the first baseman at the first basemen; or Frank, Miller. His runners-up are Joe's Kitchen and the second baseman at the second baseman. These men are the most important in this important honor.

The All-Legacy College football team will take the field this afternoon against Westminster and is expected to put on a fine display.

This meeting was originally scheduled for the end of the week, but it has been postponed to the next day. This is a good opportunity for the team to work out its kinks before the big game.

Take the time to come to the campus. Tournmalet, Gator Sickles to Slippery Rock in their third of three meets. Two weeks later, Westover College of Ohio will play the Canal Cubs, who will play Way to take at their home meet this Saturday.

The next meet will be at the Canal Cubs, where Way plans to take some of his team to play against the teams there. The Canal Cubs are the strongest team in the area and they will provide a stiff test for Way's team.
