respect your opinions so much I would not write this!

Dear Chas Tarbell

I am grieved at seeing by the public prints that you support Wilson for another term!

A month or two ago it would not have affected my sentiments in that way. But the signing of the "Eight Hour Bill" — to be "collected", I fear, with interest twice compounded in days to come — with four years borrowed from the Union leaders — well! I am now an active member of the "Yes, damn it! Club". For I voted for Wilson, at the last election!

Frankly I can see only four possible explanations

1. Shameful cowardice
2. Unbelievable stupidity.

3. A political 'deal' for the labor vote savoring of treason to his high office — to say nothing of those of us who voted for him to represent the public interest.

4. A mixture of two or more of the preceding ingredients!

These are strong words for a mild tempered person to address to a lady friend but I find the same failing among mine men and often — of many walks in life.

To vote for him again would be to endorse his actions and encourage their repetition. Surely we can progress in some better way! In fact it looks to me some what like the squirrel in the wheel — pushing the ground from under him with just about the same compensating advantages — Otherwise I hope you are well

Sincerely yours
