November 18th, 1908.

Mr. S. S. McClure,
44 E. 23rd Street,
New York.

My dear Mr. McClure:

I have received your letter of November 12th announcing that the book business will be carried on by Doubleday, Page & Company after the first of December. Will you be good enough to let me know what the terms of your transfer and sale are as far as the rights of authors are concerned? I take it for granted that my contracts are transferred to Doubleday, Page & Company subject to my consent. Please let me know the exact wording of this part of your contract.

Yours

Ida M. Tarbell
