New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

With reference to your comment in your article in the December issue of the Cosmopolitan magazine as to the Sherman Law, may I impose upon your valuable time by suggesting that you might be interested to read the enclosure, which is a decision handed down by a three-judge federal court on October 3, 1932, denying to the industry the right to operate efficiently and effect distribution economies. We have appealed the case to the U. S. Supreme Court, which high tribunal, I hope, will go along with your line of thinking. I will mail you a copy of our appeal brief directly it is all the press, which will be next week.

Yours very truly,

C. S. Huntress

Executive Secretary.

Enclosure.
