December 1937

Dear Ida Tarbell,

Thanks for thinking of me the newspapers keep me in touch with your work, every New York interview is copied throughout the State and I get many clippings sent me of "your friend Ida Tarbell." Am glad you are well and active, so am I and more to do than many younger. My cherished lamp must bring me to your mind sometimes. The Fairchilds came for two days, the convention of Chemical in Rochester N.Y. brought me some interesting men callers. The Lyman Beechers stores are coming in January. Christmas brought me over whelming collections from far and near but one cannot be happy in such a troubled world, to say nothing of our own special cares, which seem serious enough alone.

At the moment my family Anita and Chester are well, Chester having been through his fourth leg operation in Rochester N.Y., but he's so delicate, handsome and courageous, we are ever anxious - Faithfully yours
