Allegheny Student Orators Entered in Intercollegiate Forensic Competitions

Two Allegheny students are participating in intercollegiate speech contests this week.

Nan Kilburn will speak today in the Interstate Oratorical Contest, held at Northwestern University, Evanston. Miss Kilburn will repeat her original oration, “Prudence Con- verts All,” which she took first place in oratory in the 1951 National Pennsylvania intercol- legiate forensic tournament, held at Lehigh University early in March. Contestsant from upwards of 30 schools from all over the country will compete in elimination rounds in two divisions, eastern and west- ern. The top three speakers from each division will then speak to de- termine first, second, and third place winners for the contest.

Miss Kilburn’s oration will be published in a booklet “Winning Orations,” published by the Inter- state Oratorical League, sponsor of the contest. The booklet is to contain a copy of the winning ora- tion entry, which is a mem- bership of the league.

Emily Engle is scheduled to take part in a national tournament of the Civic Oratorical Association, sponsor- ed by Western Reserve University, Cleveland. Miss Engle’s ora- tion will deal with the subject, “It’s Just a Bunch of Horseshit.” Orators may or may not take nine schools in this area shall compete in the contest, to be held on April 4. A $15 fee is required of all com- petitors. Of the total collected, 95% goes to the first-place winner, while the second place speaker re- ceives 40% of the sum.

Mr. Howard Martin, of the Alle- gheny Speech Department, will ac- company Miss Engle to Cleveland for the contest.

by Jack Hill

In a press conference held Tuesday afternoon, President Louis T. Benezet announced the signing of David C. Henderson as foot- ball coach to succeed Bill Daddio, who will join the Chicago Cardinals as assistant professional football coach.

Henderson is at present head football mentor at Kenyon College, Ohio. His resignation to that position was accepted by the college Saturday.

The appointment came after three months of weeding out applications by the Athletic Committee, com- posed of Mr. R. V. Dr. Mc- Dade, Mr. McFarland, Dr. Byers, Dr. Robert and Dr. H. C. Ludell. Of the 50 applicants, four were invited to the campus. While here they met and talked with Paul E. Pellett, the three-time captain of the 1952 Gator football team, and other players.

Dr. Benezet, in announcing the new appointment, said, “I am satisfied that after a careful search of the field of candidates, the man who can bring to Allegheny the best combination of training and talent to do our job, the students, faculty, alumni, and townspeople will like Dave Henderson,” he con- cluded.

Burtt Speaks Tonight On Philosophy In Last Fifty Years; Concludes Series

by Pat Riesenman

This weekend will be the oc- casion of Allegheny’s first stu- dent planned and directed high school weekend, for the pur- pose of interesting prospective students in coming to Alle- gheny. A full program is set up for Saturday and Sunday, according to student chairman Bill Osheimer.

Of the 1,500 invitations sent out, 240 were accepted. There will be 125 women and 115 men ar- riving on campus Saturday for reg- istration between 9 and 12 a.m., in Brooks Lobby. Undergraduate women from all classes have volun- teered to assist with the welcom- ing program, and have agreed to take students along to classes in their particular fields of interest.

The visitors will eat four meals in Brooks. Saturday lunch from 12:15 to 1:00 p.m., supper at 6:00 p.m., Sunday breakfast from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m., and dinner at 1:00 p.m. In order to be able to serve all of them in Brooks for Sunday dinner, it will be necessary for all college women to eat in Cochran at thate time in cabaret style.

Saturday Program

The program for Saturday after- noon includes informal meetings with faculty members concerning specific fields from 1 to 3 p.m., to be followed by a choice of attend- ance at Washington and Jefferson track meet at College Field or a trip to Bonson. There will be a special performance of the play "Shadow and Substance" in the Playhouse at 8 p.m., to be followed by an informal dance in Brooks, to which all college students are in- vited. Refreshments will be served.

On Sunday morning a tour of the campus will be conducted from 9:30 to 11:00, after which the students will be taken to Chapel services. Transparencies for Catholic stu- dents will be arranged by the New- man Club.

It is planned to have the wom- en overnight in Califisch, while men will be housed in Hopital Phi Gamma. (Continued on page 6)
The Lost Weekend

Some weeks ago The Campus initiated discussion concerning an all-college weekend. It was felt that Allegheny needed a good healthy affair of this type to relieve the monotony of our academic life and trim and trim." We also believed, and still do, that such a weekend would contribute to a greater feeling of unity at Allegheny.

A committee was formed and elaborate plans for May Day Weekend were drawn up. Among these plans were the fashion show, Friday afternoon, progressive fraternity parties Friday night, no classes Saturday morning, minusation of the May Queen followed by a float parade with the ROTC marching on Saturday afternoon, a play preceding the May Queen coronation at 4:30, Saturday night, and a picnic at Bousson Sunday afternoon and evening for both faculty and students. A preliminary program was printed.

The weekend as such is now lost for this spring, a number of the Student Affairs related to the postpone of further plans for this semester for the following reasons: insufficient time to properly arrange the weekend; the death of a student; the cancellation of the all-college theme of May Day; and the fact that Student Affairs has tried to cut down the social calendar for this month.

We agree that since the inception of the idea there would be a need for an all-college weekend. In order to insure its success not the first time but in succeeding years such an affair must be carefully thought out. But we also feel that with sufficient planning an all-college weekend could play up rather than de-emphasize the major theme for the May Day festivities as they are now set up. The Campus feels that a good many of the usually scheduled events are too much on the same order. It was felt that this spring, with an originally suggested an all-college weekend. Student Affairs' action to eliminate the Student Affairs will find a more plausible solution for the problem of next year. In the meantime, we feel that this solution will include an all-college weekend.

There is a good chance that the progressive party that student affairs has organized the use of four fraternity houses with students traveling from place to place throughout the evening. An interesting feature will be the organization of the parties and expenses will be jointly met. We hope this plan will be approved by Student Affairs when it meets in the near future. It could be one of more breaking down the boundaries which line.

The progressive party is a good idea. If we can't have the whole cake, let's at least accept the responsibility of planning the all-college weekend for next year, how about a great deal of student discussion, opinion, and just plain push?

Letter to the Editor

The Campus is very pleased to hear of the recent news and we are pleased to report that this correspondence is a wonderful success. We are glad to hear of the fine work that is being done by student groups and we hope that this correspondence will help to promote these activities. We also hope that this correspondence will help to promote this correspondence and that it will continue to flourish.

There's Still Time

There are many of us who have heard, either in lectures or ads, the idea that where there is a will there's a way. We fully understand that in last few hectic weeks there is much to be done, but it is possible to be both efficient and relaxed.

In Spring we often times imagine that there is a certain member of the opposite sex who is especially for us. While we may lament the fact that he or she is not available, we must not let our imaginations get the best of us. By the time we have figured out all the reasons why he or she is unavailable, we may have missed a great opportunity. Therefore, we must not let our imaginations get the best of us. By the time we have figured out all the reasons why he or she is unavailable, we may have missed a great opportunity.

We have all felt moments of success when we have won what we sought. We know that it's not the victory that counts but the attempt to win, the struggle, and the enjoyment of the experience.

Since Spring is a time of transition, of letting go of the past and embracing the future, it is important to cherish every moment and every experience. Each moment is a stepping stone to the next moment, and each experience is a lesson that we can learn from.

In the end, it is not the results that matter, but the journey. It is the process of challenge, struggle, and growth that we must embrace. And so, we encourage you to make the most of your time in Spring, to appreciate every moment, and to cherish every experience.

There's Still Time.
May Accept Invitation

I accept your invitation. Your program looks delightful. We could skip the Registration, Brooks Hall, and have a formal dinner at the Alumni. I am sure that all of you will enjoy it and all that sort of thing. You list lunch at Brooks next on the agenda — would you have lunch with me just a thought?

And about the informal meetings with the faculty — they certainly wouldn’t like that, I assure you. So that part we could skip, unless you feel it is necessary. I see that the trip was to Washington and Jefferson inquirers in the last 48 hours. It is a 100-yd dash; I want to settle an old wrangle with W. J. and the first official assignment is yours.

The trip to Bousson is out. Please forgive me, but nature is not one of my vices.

Now we come to the play, “Shadow and Substance.” So much nonsense is going on everywhere that we don’t see. Couldn’t we settle for Mona Blee? About the tour of the city — there is one every day on the main thoroughfare, and it is such a fine thing to see, there is nothing more useful to do.

I would enjoy the Chapel service because I know now that I missed so many services in some years ago and hold them daily. Do you have them every day now? You should.

Fairly Well Acquainted

To answer your hope that we shall become better acquainted with Allegheny College, you may be assured that I am already fairly well acquainted with Allegheny. May I express a hope! It is this: that you, Gladys, enjoy your days at Allegheny, and that your affections for the college will ripen as much as mine has in 23 years.

When you explain to your President, whom I hope to be your successor, that some of the records become blurred and you invited an old friend to write you. You will give him affectionate greetings and tell him he is not nearly as far away as pieces for the Alumni Bulletin.

Netters Meet Clarion And Slippery Rock In Initial Matches

The Gator varsity tennis team is rushing into final practice sessions this week in preparation for the 16-darter which will see these teams face Clarion on Friday. On Tuesday the nettlers open the home season against Slippery Rock at 3:00 p.m.

Ten varsity members will compose the squad from which six singles and three doubles combinations will be chosen.

A successful season is anticipated with six returning lettermen, Tom Musto, George van Hartogh, Stan Segel, Ginny Minor, Larry Olesy, and Paul Davidoff, all of whom have looked good in practice and will be the mainstay of the team.

Also emerging from the ranks of 22 candidates are two sophomores, Dick Atkinson and John Way, and a trio of freshmen, Joe Dickson, John Howie, and Hank Fisher who show promise and will likely see some varsity action.

Starting just after spring vacation under H. F. Way's skillful direction and aided by annual Mudsville equipment, the team is rounding out into a smooth squad of hard hitting Gators.

Little is known about Clarion, but all indications point to a good squad which will be a tough matching, though, when the Gators play host to the visiting team in this aggregation. Allegheny shaded Slippery Rock last year 5-4, and the Rockets will be looking for a repeat of that defeat with a powerful team.

Cindermen Oppose W & J on Saturday; Sapper, Ocambl Injuries Hurt Team

Allegheny College's 1952 track squad will shop its wares in a dual encounter with Washington and Jefferson at College Field on May 1st. The meet was originally scheduled as a triangular meet including University, but the Cambridge Springs school is unable to field a Frequent injuries have hampered the chances of Bill Hanock's team. These include Hub Ocambl and pole-vacker Jack Sapper, both lettermen, have injuries which prohibit their appearance come Saturday. Sapper recently sustained an ankle fracture while at practice. Freshman Woodo Lange also suffered an ankle sprain the other day.

This bad news from the linemen room has put a damper over the meet, but there are three track lettermen not participating this season for other reasons. A gap in the present promising Gator track ranks.

In the short distance Hans has a partner in Brian Poole. There are also two singles. Moro and Bruce Forreger, and Dom Mattel in the 880. Bill Allmon and letterman Dave DeGrange will run the longer stretches.

Pleas Dave Warze has shown promise in the high jump, and will also compete in the 220's with Bailey and Dave Mitchell. Contesta tes for the mile relay have yet to be chosen.

The javelin throw, the top event for last year's team with Ocambl and Mich Boyent vying for records, is in question mark, this season, as the discuss event. Letterman Al Davis, a newcomer, will shot along with Bob Nichols and McIndoe. Lettermen Bob Bock, Frank Desk, and Morgan Duffer will handle the high jump duty. Freshman Duolan is entered in the pole vault and letterman Bob Getzinger is on tap for a sure entry in the broad jump.

W & J Strength

Much of W & J's strength lies in the distance meets. Both Bailey and Duffer, a pair who will furnish the district with plenty of speed this season.

The Jaymen also have Piscocior, a hurler; Mariner, a miler; and Tastman, a weightman; for added strength.
