KNOX COLLEGE
GALESBURG, ILLINOIS
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

April 18, 1929

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Under separate cover I am sending you a photograph of Old Main showing the side where the Lincoln-Douglas debate was held. This may help to remind you of days at Knox that were not too unhappy and it may even have a place in your Lincoln collection as a small document of a great event.

Life goes on comfortably here, although I think spring fever is generally epidemic on the campus.

Mrs. Britt is deep in a Better Homes exhibit which comes on next week. I believe the purpose is to show how much more efficient modern home arrangement is and how much more picturesque the old was; at least that is the lesson that the crude masculine mind deduces.

Cordially yours,

Albert Britt
