Earlmeil

Harrisonburg, Virginia,

December 12, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you for your good letter of November 29, and for the information regarding will of "Virginia John" Lincoln.

Miss Elliott is finding some facts of interest to you, I think; and I hope that she will be able to make a detailed report to you soon.

I shall be glad to aid the photographer in getting pictures of the Lincoln place. If it will be of any assistance to you, or rather, I should say, if it will meet your plans just as well, I shall be glad to arrange for the whole matter. That is, I shall be glad to secure a photographer here and have photographs made according to your directions. However, if you have a special photographer whom you prefer to send, I shall be glad to assist him as far as I can.

Mrs. Wayland joins me in kindest regards and best wishes to you and your sister.

Yours very sincerely,

John W. Wayland.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library