Playshop To Present First Production of "Beggars In Paradise" On May 28
The Playshop production of "Beggars in Paradise", with a cast of over 50 Allegheny students, will open Tuesday, April 28, and run through May 2.

The story, written by Gaston-Marie Martens, centers around two Flemish beggars, Boule (Steve Wolfson) and Rietje (Ed Dow) as they travel through the villages, and the beggars are accidentally killed and found themselves in the realm of Lucifer (Ted Werner).

Terrified by the imp of devils, the two beggars go to the heaven where they encounter St. Peter (Dick Overmyer), St. Nicholas Leonard (Charles Deodatus) and St. Charles (Charles Parlett). Conscious of their sins, the beggars persuade St. Mary (Abbie DeLeed) to plead for them before the throne of God (Dr. John Campbell, class of 1925). God, in the presence of St. Michael (Robert Smith) and St. Gabriel (Levi Kline, class of 1949), send the two beggars back to earth for a second chance to earn their way to heaven.

Lola Maccony and Barbara Bodner are cast as the wives of the two beggars, and their children are played by Kent DeGriffenard and Sandra Moore.

The cast includes: Thelma Jones, Graham Dunlop, Doug Pedersen, Elvis Stern, Ralph Darling, Judy O'Day, Paul Gadi-Spirits Or Name?

There has been considerable excitement around the campus over the past week with the occurrence of an All-College weekend in conjunction with May Day. As is usually the case with such excitement, much of the debate consists of emotion without much reason and fact to go on.

Actually most of the activities for the May Day weekend have already been agreed upon and are scheduled to take place. Calling the event an “all-college” weekend will make little difference.

The real issues at stake are the questions of “progressive parties” at Mount as they are always the discussion of Saturday morning classes, and a float-building contest Saturday morning.

The Campus believes that progressive parties and the holding of a float-making contest are activities which would contribute to college unity. We hope that some means can be found to include these activities in the May Day program of events.

Unfortunately for some of the plans, it is perhaps too late to ask the administration to call off Saturday morning classes. Many faculty members have their lectures planned months ahead of time. They probably could not be taken off Saturday morning classes unless either shortening the Monday - Wednesday - Friday class week or finding some other time for the Saturday classes.

The Campus believes that planning committees for May Day weekends in the future should attempt to complete their plans at a much earlier date so that the administration and Student Affairs Committee will have time to make the necessary arrangements.

We hope that this year’s May Day weekend will be an “all-college” weekend in spirit if not in name.

Trix at the Fill

To the Editor:

The Campus has done it again. For the second weekend in a row, we have gone off half-cocked in an editorial. We realize that all of our editorialists are the place for members of the editorial staff of the paper to bring in important and at the same time newsworthy attention of the student body. However, their prerogative should not allow them to use their writings to air their own personal complaints. Furthermore, we would expect that the matters in questions be discussed in an intelligent manner. We are not about to搪 将 our outrage-ious editorial about the recent election and the endorsement of one candidate for the position of a sports editor of the A.U. by the outgoing executive officer.

If we may, we would like to point out some considerations in connection with this biased view of personalgipe. The first remark made in the article is a rather obvious one; the confidence in the ability of the outgoing President to judge the demands of the office, as well as his literary and experience of the two candidates. However, because it suits their fancy, the authors of the editorial would have this person keep his wisdom and judgment to himself.

Of course they say that this is not done just to stamp out and opposition, but as they say, because of the “possibility of freedom.” When we write an opinion and make a statement as to what this strike is, hits you as it hits us. As to their statement, we feel every little confidence in the man making the endorsement. To us it is a slap in Steve Grafflin’s face that is both unfounded and incurable.

But let’s get back to that one point too much because there are other statements in the article that we would like to discuss. The best

Chamber Music Series Ends Sunday Afternoon
With Varied Program

Compositions by J. S. Bach, Walter Pucin, and Robert Schuman will be presented in the final chamber music concert of the 1932-33 season sponsored by Allegheny College's music department at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Ford Memorial Chapel. Musicians from the college and the local high school, faculty members and guest artists will be among the performers.

The opening number on the program will be J. S. Bach's Cantata "I Will My Cross Bear Gladly." Solist will be Mr. W. S. Wright North, baritone, of the college's music department. As instrumental ensemble will accompany him, and a small chorus, composed of members of the church choir will participate in the final choral number of the cantata.

Second on the program, representing contemporary American music, will be Walter Piston's "Serenata" for violin and piano, written in 1945. The composer is professor of music at Harvard University.

The program will close with Robert Schumann's "Quintet" for piano and strings, one of the best known chamber music works of the Romantic era in music.

Participating in the concert, in addition to Mr. North, will be guest artists Lois (Mrs. C. W.) McCracken, pianist; of the college's dean of students, and Frederick Reinhardt, violinist, of Pittsburgh, who has participated previously in musical events on campus. Other performers will be Robert Frost, oboist, and Arnold Mazie, violinist: Meadville High School junior Barbara Wexott, bass violist; and Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Neu- rath, violinist and "cello respective-ly.

May Queen Coronation, Formal Dance Highlight
May Day Celebration

The annual May Day festivities will be held the weekend of May 8-10 on Allegheny's campus. Co-ordinated around the theme "Make Believe," the weekend will feature the coronation of May Queen Cicely Atwell on Bentley lawn Saturday afternoon and the formal dance Saturday evening in Brooks Hall.

To open the celebration there will be a baseball game with Wooster at College Field at 2 p.m. Friday. Later in the afternoon May Queen and her court will model in a fashion show in the Pinedome. Orchesis will present the second performance of its spring show in the Playshop at 8:15 p.m.

The coronation will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday and entertainment will follow. The eight floats, one to be erected by each class and four by campus social groups, will parade at 2:45 p.m. The second baseball game, Allegheny vs Washington and Jefferson, is scheduled for 3:30 p.m.

The May Day Banquet will take place at 6 p.m. and the all-college formal dance from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. in Brooks Hall.

Sunday there will be a chapel service in the morning and the tradi- tional Phi Dita Theta tea and re- ception that evening. The May Queen will arrive for the coronation in the afternoon at the fraternity house.

Making the May Day Planning Committee are Barb Cooper and Al Lilton.

Extra Commencement Announcements Ordered

Senior class president Rod Perry has announced that a limited num- ber of extra commencement an- nouncements have been ordered in addition to those ordered directly by students. Anyone who has not ordered announcements and wishes to purchase them is advised to contact Terry as soon as possible.

atomic weapons. He is considered one of the most effective debaters against such people as Vishinsky that the United States has found. His recognition from his past post was submitted twice this year and twice President Eisenhower prevailed upon him to continue. His resignation was finally accepted in February and he has been named as U. S. representative in view of the recently launched Communist peace drive.

A native of New York City, he studied at Harvard College, Oxford University, and the Geneva School of International Studies. He is a member of the Middle Temple of the Inn of Court in London.

He entered government service in 1931 as an assistant legal adviser in the Department of State. Three years later he became general coun- sel to the Printing and Publishing Industries and in 1936 became as- sociate general counsel of the Na- tional Association of Manufacturers. Re-entering federal service in 1938 as associate general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, he served in this capacity until 1943 when he was commissioned as Lieu- tenant Colonel in the Army and placed in charge of the Economics and Labor Division of the Inter- national Labor Organization and re- mained there until 1946. He then became Deputy Assistant Secre- tary of State for occupied areas.

In 1947 he was named legal ad- viser to the State Department, and in 1949 was designated as coordin- ator of Foreign Assistance Programs, with responsibility for the develop- ment of the first Military Assistance Program.

Baseball Varsity Drops Two To Pitt, Susquehanna Last Thursday And Friday

The Hilltopper baseball team suffered two defeats in their first two outings of the season last Thursday and Friday. The Gators dropped the first game to Susquehanna 3 to 2, and the second one to Pitt 10 to 3. The Susquehanna game was called at seven innings because of cold weather. The Gators had a two-run lead but were unable to hold it due to loose fielding.

Tennis Team To Play Against Slippery Rock

Jeffersonville's net squad is scheduled to square off against Slippery Rock on the Rockets' court tomorrow afternoon, placed Old Man Winter and Jack Frost are agreeable.

Success over Slippery Rock would run the Gator consecutive victory streak to ten, nine of these wins coming from last year's undefeated season. Since 1946, when tennis was resumed at Jeffersonville, athletic director H. P. Day's teams have been perennial winners, having posted but one losing season in the seven years. They have amassed the best record of any Allegheny sport during that period.

Four Lettermen Return

With four letterman returning, Joe Dickson, Gore van Hartgh, Tom Mastro, and Stan Segel, along with John Way and Don Sayer, members of last year's squad, prospects for the season look good. Also showing a lot of promise are new-comers Harvey Helley, John Moir, Chuck Rino, Pat Campbell, Carter White, and Faith Walters. Helley, a product of sunny California, has looked good in practice and should secure a starting berth.

Allegheny had little trouble with Slippery Rock last season, blanking the Rockets 9-0. More trouble can be expected this year as Slippery Rock has many of their veterans returning. On April 28 the Gators play Edinboro at home, and on May 1 journey to Grove City. The Edinboro Panthers finished tied with West Virginia, and the Gators will have their hands full.

Dale Announces Picnic For Sophomore Class

Meadville Debate Team Wins H.S. Tournament

Meadville High School was the winner of the ninth annual High School Debate Tournament held at Allegheny last Friday and Saturday. The wintry weather last week has made it practically impossible for the trackers to keep in their best shape.

The probable starters for the shot put are Alex Speers, Hanke Stuhler, Clyde Rickard, and Hah O'Connel, while the high jump will show Bob Buck, Frank Desko, and Dick Felfeld. The pole vault will have Graum Dunlop and Don Barron. O'Connel, Bill Bower, Speers, John Shaw, and Alex O'Connel will throw the javelin, with Ron Zebner, Art Steffel, Buck, and Desko broad jumping.

Leading contestants for the mile run are D'Alessio, Frank Brand, and Joe DeRosa. While the two-mile run will feature Steffel. Sprinters will probably be Zebner, Chuck Waite, Joe Sparks, Arnie Berger, and Jay Schwartz; the four best of these will enter the mile relay. The quarter-mile is wide open, with Paul Zavarella, Jim Lafferty, Feffer, and Shaw. Steffet, Waite, Dick Bender, and Berger will be likely to run the hurdles.

Last year Westminster won over the Gators by the slim score of 68-67.

Glance And Betz Star In Ping Pong Exhibition

Sandor Glance, table tennis expert and former co-holder of the world's doubles title, and Pauline Betz, women's tennis champion, presented an exhibition in trick and serious ping pong play last Thursday night in Montgomery Gymnasium.

Some 300 students, faculty, and townspeople attended the match which also included the introduction of Jackson, a new sport described as a cross between tennis and handball.

In response to a call for challengers Bill Segmiller, Hah O'Connel, and John Freemans took on Mr. Glance and Miss Betz in both singles and doubles ping pong matches and finals. All three members of the student body lost their contests to the fast-moving pair.

Students may reserve seats for any performance by presenting their Playshop activities tickets at the box-office.

Bousson Brush-Up Set
May 3; Plan To Clear Trails, Dredge Pond

The annual Bousson Brush-Up set will be held on Sunday, May 3, under the direction of the Allegheny Outing Club, according to president Mac Bailey. The biggest project, which will be chairmanned by Larry Griggs, will be the dredging of the pond to make it ready for swimming.

Harrison Shields will be in charge of clearing the trails, and Mr. Gustave Ryander and Bob Braman will direct the clearing of the ball field. The road committee will be headed by Clyde Francis, and the wood cutting will be directed by Clyde Metzger.

Best Dunlop will be in charge of clearing out the picnic areas, and Miss Marjorie Kirk and Gretchen Graff will be in charge of the group who will work on the cabins. Dr. Richard L. Brown will operate the public address system, and Dr. Robert Bugee will direct the pruning of the pine trees.

Mary Scottell is chairman of the publicity committee, Dave Warren of the transportation committee, and Owen Locke of the food committee. Sanitation, traffic, and equipment committees are also being planned.

Sign-up lists will be posted in Cochran and in Brooks.

There is an untruth, we feel, to use such an office for the endorsement of one candidate as it would be for

"The Campus" to devote its column to one candidate.

It seems to us that the problem of educating the freshman women in the necessary qualifications which have been handled in a quieter manner than was. We wonder how much and what kind of "education" is ordinarily achieved by a speech delivered amidst fireworks and between selections by a brass band.

It is unfortunate that the training of an important issue has been lowered by the use of tactics of same-calling and indulging in personalities. We hope that in the future the question can be considered on a base of ethics rather than of personalities.

WILL THIS SUIT FIT You?

If you can make the grade, you can fly the latest, hottest, fanciest jobs in the air—and do it within one year.

IT TAKES a good, tough, serious guy to wear the gear of an Aviation Cadet. But if you can measure up, here's your chance to get the finest in aviation training—training that equips you to fly the most modern airplanes in the world and prepares you for responsible executive positions, both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro-with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate! In addition, you must be between 19 and 23½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

Class Of 1952 Gift Used To Purchase Prints In Current Library Exhibit

An exhibit of original woodcuts, etchings, and lithographs signed by the artists will be on exhibit in Reis Library through May 3. These prints have been purchased for the college with a fund donated by the Class of 1952.

The group includes woodcuts by Feininger, Bartel, Kollwitz, Kandinsky, and Fransconi; etchings by Baskin, Weinholdt, and Pollock; and also several lithographs. These original prints will later be permanently on display throughout the campus.

According to Mr. Carl Heeschon of the art department, original prints were bought instead of expensive oils or water colors because the school has no real art collection as yet, and this seemed an excellent opportunity to obtain at a lower price more examples of the works of well-known artists.

College Union Display

Original lithographs and etchings by the Association of American Artists will be on display in the College Union through April 25. Individuals may order these prints through Mr. Heeschon for 50 cents.

The Association of American Artists is a firm promoting art by Americans at a lower price. The exhibit in the College Union includes the works of such artists as Thomas Benton, Fletcher Martin, William Sharpe, William Gropper, Adolph Dehn, and Frederick Taubes.
