Dear Miss Tarbell:

Have you a hunch for a brief article on Lincoln, something that would have news in it, or at least a news slant that we could publish in an issue of LIBERTY, coming out just before Lincoln's birthday?

Herbie Mayes tells me that he has finally persuaded you to write the autobiography that I tried so hard to get you to do. I am looking forward eagerly to reading this, even in someone else's magazine.

With all kind regards and best wishes, please believe me to be,

Sincerely yours

William C. Lengel
