SELDEN BACON
60 WALL STREET

NEW YORK Dec. 28. 1909.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
Titusville, Penn.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I have yours of yesterday and enclose copy of letter just sent Mr. Mackenzie.

Mr. Lawler tells me over the 'phone that the upshot of the letter was that the McClures would do nothing. He is to send me a copy.

Yours faithfully,
Selden Bacon.

We have a few snow drifts of our own.
