Investment Securities,
Stocks and Bonds
of Southern Corporations

HUGH MacRAE & CO.
Bankers
WILMINGTON, N.C.

June 24th, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City, N.Y.,

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I was glad to receive your letter and to know that the suggestions which I made in regard to your article were acceptable to you. I appreciate your approval of the work which I have been doing and your confidence in me.

The package of material referred to has come, and I shall be interested in the documents which Dr. Newell and Major Ahern gave you.

Am glad you decided to leave out the reference to the G.E.Company. The time is coming when it will make a part of a good big story, but the part that puzzles me is that the real criminals cover up their tracks by disposing of their securities to the innocent public, and when one fights them it is a fight that hurts friends more than enemies.

I am planning to leave for Linville tomorrow for a vacation, and I wish you could run down there some time for a rest. You would like that country.

Mr. Foulke is making excellent progress with his work, and it looks as if we might have a real farm within the next twelve months.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours very sincerely,

Hugh MacRae

Digital Image, 2009, The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library