Mr. Isaac Diller,
Springfield, Ill.

Dear Mr. Diller:

I meant to ask you the other night if you would have any objection to give me a copy of the little invitation of Willie Lincoln, which you showed me. I have gathered a number of things about this interesting boy and I should so much like to use this. If there is anything else you can tell me about him as a boy, I would be glad to have it.

I did so enjoy seeing you all the other night. Please remember me to Mrs. Diller and all the family.

Very sincerely yours,

220 East 19th St.,
